

The FCC should not enact any law that would lessen Indiana's telemarketing calls law. Before, dinner hour meant at least 3-4 unwanted telephone solicitations. Now our family enjoys more quality time with minimal unwanted phone solicitations. Please don't interfere with Indiana's highly successful telemarketing law!